Terms of Reference

1.0 Purpose

The purpose of the Athlete's Commission is to give the athletes a forum to have an input into Paralympics Ireland. It also provides a direct link for Paralympics Ireland to confer with athlete advocates on particular issues and ongoing activities.

The International Paralympic Committee have a stated policy requesting all National Paralympic Committees to ensure athlete representatives are involved in decision making at all levels of the organisation. These terms of reference outline the means by which athletes are central to the decision making of Paralympics Ireland.

2.0 Role of Paralympics Ireland's Athletes Commission

- 2.1 To act as a voice representing athletes at all levels of the organisation from strategy and programme planning to Board level.
- 2.2 To ensure strong channels of communication are in place to ensure athlete specific issues are highlighted at the appropriate level of the organisation.
- 2.3 To support the work of the Paralympics Ireland Board and Management Team in an advisory capacity.
- 2.4 To ensure strong athlete advocacy throughout the organisation.
- 2.5 To act as advocates for Paralympic Sport and Paralympics Ireland.
- 2.6 To propose the main priorities for the commission in agreement with the CEO, at the start of its term, and set out annual goals thereafter.
- 2.7 To support the activities of the Paralympics Ireland Paralympians Club
- 2.8 To nominate suitable representatives to sit on other Paralympic Ireland working groups or panels when requested by the Board of Paralympics Ireland.

3.0 Structure & Membership

- 3.1 Paralympics Ireland will appoint between 6-8 Athlete Advocates to comprise the Paralympics Ireland Athletes Commission
- 3.2 The term will be for the period of a Paralympic Games summer cycle (usually 4 years). It will start in the 1st quarter of the year of a new cycle and finish by the end of December post summer games.
- 3.2 Athletes who competed at either the Athens2004, Beijing 2008, London 2012, Rio 2016 or Tokyo 2020 Paralympic Games as members of the Irish Paralympic Team are eligible to become Athlete Advocates.
- 3.3 Athlete Advocates will be representative of Paralympic Athletes, not representatives of their individual sport.

4.0 Frequency of Meetings

- 4.1 The Athletes Commission will meet at least three times a year. Further meetings may be convened by the Chairperson as required to carry out the business of the Athletes Commission effectively.

4.2 On at least one occasion each year, the Athletes Commission will meet in an open forum session with Paralympics Ireland's Management Team and CEO to share ideas and strategies re the organisations programmes and policies development.

4.3 Meetings may be convened at Paralympics Ireland training camps/information days or at squad training sessions providing prior agreement is received from the Performance Director or manager of the team.
